THE DECISION GIVEN IN FULL

OPINION OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THE DISPENSARY CASE.
Justice Montgomery Wrote the Opinion—Reproduced for the Benefit of Telegram Readers.

The Telegram took it for granted that the people of Greensboro would like to read the full text of the supreme court's decision in the dispensary case, handed Tuesday; hence it publishes it, as procured by us from the supreme court records. It is as follows:
North Carolina, Supreme Court: February term, 1900. No. 180, 181, from Guilford county. E. T. Garsed vs.
City of Greensboro (both sides appealed).
Bynum & Bynum and J. N. Staples for plaintiff; A. M. Scales, J. N.
Wilson and A. L. Brooks for defendant.
Montgomery, J. The purpose of this action is the same as was that in Guy vs. Commissioners, 125 N. C., 471, the overthrow of the dispensary system instituted by the general assembly for the better regulation of the sale of liquor. In this action the plaintiff seeks to enjoin the defendant, the dispensary board, its treasurer and manager, from establishing and maintaining the dispensary in the city of Greensboro, provided for in chapter 254 of the laws of 1899, and from borrowing any money from the city of Greensboro for that purpose, or from contracting any debt for that purpose, and also enjoin the city from lending or appropriating any money to the board; or from lending its credit or pledging its faith for the benefit of the board, or any of its officers for the purpose named in the act. This city was enjoined according to the prayer of the complaint, the injunction prayed for against the dispensary act was refused, and both sides appealed.

In Guy vs. Commissioners, supra, the main objection that was urged against the legislation was that there was produced thereby an unlawful monopoly inconsistent with section thirty-one of article one of the state constitution.
In the present case, that ground of objection was made but it was not presented as the chief point of attack. The plaintiff in this case is a complete answer to the contention that such legislation creates a monopoly in the odious and offensive sense of that term; and we care to add nothing to what is said on that point in that case.

The strong and open battle of the counsel of the plaintiff was made against the act on the ground that the powers conferred upon the dispensary board in section of the act and upon the commissioners of the city of Greensboro, in section five are repugnant to section seven of article three of the constitution, and that being so the whole act is void. Section four is as follows:
"The said dispensary board shall have power to employ attorneys, agents and clerks to assist in the defense and prosecution of persons, firms or corporations violating this act and for other purposes, may employ chemists or other competent persons to test liquors, may borrow money, and shall have power to do all other proper things not contrary to law to carry out the true intent of this act;" and that part of section 5, necessary to the discussion of this part of the case, is in the following words: "For the purpose of procuring the necessary funds for the establishment of said dispensary, the board of aldermen of the city of Greensboro shall appropriate such an amount not exceeding two thousand dollars, as may be demanded by said dispensary board and said amount shall be repaid out of the profits arising from said dispensary, provided said dispensary board may establish said dispensary without receiving said appropriation."

The contention of plaintiff's counsel that the powers conferred upon the Commissioners of Greensboro in that part of section 5 of the act, quoted above, are repugnant to section 7 of article seven of the constitution must be sustained. The right to question the power of the general assembly to confer upon the municipal bodies the power to incur reasonable expense in regulating the sale of liquors by others, cannot be questioned; but to authorize municipal authorities to raise money by taxation, or by loan, or by pledging credit, for the purpose of aiding others in the sale of liquors, or to be used by the bodies themselves for that purpose, without a vote of the people clearly cannot be exercised, because such money and the purpose for which it is to be used cannot be called necessary expenses of the municipal bodies. County and municipal authorities, under the express sanction of the general assembly, can reasonably regulate and control the sale of liquors, and in so doing can incur a reasonable expense.
But the constitution, article seven, section seven forbids the municipal authorities from investing money raised or to be raised by taxation, or using the credit of such municipality, for the benefit of other, or of themselves in such traffic, for the reason above stated, unless by the majority vote of the people. Such expenditures are not necessary expenses of the municipalities. But it does not follow, as argued by plaintiff's counsel, that, because that part of the act which authorizes the commissioners to lend the board $2,000 with which to establish the dispensary (and which authority we have seen is unconstitutional) therefore the whole act is void. The contrary opinion was held in Bennett vs.

Commissioners, 125 N. C. 468. There the act prescribed that the town commissioners of Haysen city should appropriate one third and the commissioners of Swain county two thirds of the funds necessary to establish and keep in operation the dispensary created in that town. The county and town commissioners declined to make the appropriation, and when, notwithstanding the dispensary officers tendered their bonds to the commissioners and they were refused consideration; this court in mandamus proceedings, compelled the commissioners to consider and pass upon the bonds. This court said: "The validity of the act was made in no wise dependent upon its acceptance by the county and town commissioners. They were simply directed by the act to make certain appropriations to aid in the establishment of the dispensary. That was a purely incidental requirement and claim, it would not impair the constitutionality of the rest of the act; for an act may be constitutional in part and unconstitutional in part." In that case, as in this, the dispensary board did not ask that the appropriation be made, but expressly waived all claim to it.

If the dispensary boards in such cases are able, through their own means or through gifts from others, to procure and carry out the purposes of the generally assembly, and without receiving the appropriation of money from the municipal authorities as provided for in the act, there is no reason why they should not do so, for, as we have seen, there can be no objection on the score of fostering monopolies, as the whole community shares in the profits of the monopoly.

But the plaintiff's counsel insisted seriously that the dispensary board in this case were not exercising any agency from the state, but were the agents of the city of Greensboro, and as the city could not engage in the illegal traffic through its board of aldermen, neither could it through any appointed agency. The argument was that the whole act, if it had any force was merely amendment to the chapter of Greensboro and that under that amendment the city had undertaken not to regulate and control, but to carry on the sale of liquors in manner forbidden by the charter, and that under the amendment the board of aldermen had elected and named the members of the dispensary board, and by the act were authorized and empowered to receive the bonds of the treasurer and manager.

We cannot concur in the view that the act was merely an amendment to the charter of Greensboro, and that extended the territory in which liquors were forbidden to be sold beyond the boundaries of the city limits, adds no strength to the argument of the plaintiff. In Guy vs. Commissioners, supra, it is true members of the dispensary board were named in the legislative act, but certainly the general assembly was not compelled to name them. It could take that course, but it could confer the power upon the municipality to name such agencies as the members of the dispensary board.
In the appointment of such agencies the state can act directly, or it can indirectly by conferring upon others the power to appoint in its name and on its behalf. In Guy vs. Commissioners the bonds of the dispensary officers were filed with the authorities of the city of Fayetteville. The city of Greensboro has no control over the dispensary board. In vacancies occurring by the expiration of the terms of members of the board, it is directed that the board of aldermen shall fill such vacancies. But they cannot make removals, that duty in proper cases being left with the resident judge of the district.

We are of the opinion therefore that there was no error in the ruling of the honorable judge in dismissing the restraining order which had been granted against the defendants, the members of the dispensary board.
No error.

Appeal of defendant, city of Greensboro, dismissed. Costs of the cause against the city.

Montgomery, J. For the reasons set out in the plaintiff's appeal and because of the matters set out in the last paragraph of the answer of the city of Greensboro, we think that his honor committed no error in continuing the restraining order against the city to the hearing, and enjoining it from opening a dispensary in the city of Greensboro and from contracting debts, pledging its faith, loaning its credit, or levying any tax for the use and benefit of any person or corporation in the establishing and operating such a dispensary.

The city of Greensboro in its answer, it is true, declared that it never had any intention of advancing any money to the dispensary board for the purposes of the act, and expressly di-claimed any intention to do so. In the last paragraph of the answer referred, the city claimed the right to make the appropriation, and it might be that in the future, under other conditions, it would choose to exercise that right. That, his honor saw, and took the wise precaution to prevent it.
No error.

THE JACK OVER BLOEMFONTEIN.

SOME OF THE BUKHARIS CHIEFED AS IT WENT UP.
It is Thought that the Free States Are Ready to Give Up the Laws Of Their Capital.

London, March 15—Pretoria dispatches say that the Boers and their leaders are wild with resentment at Salisbury's plainly expressed intention to wipe out the republics. All classes say they will fight to the bitter end.

President Steyn having gone to Kronstadt with 12,000 troops, it is believed that the British army will follow closely. Continental opinionists that the Free States have practically thrown up the sponge. It is thought likely that an action will be fought with the rear guard of irreconcilables, composed of Free States and Trans-vaalers, at Kronstadt, then a retirement across the line of the Vaal, where there is likely to be severe fighting.

Precisely at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon a Union Jack, made for the purpose, was hoisted over the presidency of Bloemfontein, amid the acclamations of the battalions, and many Burghers joining in heartily. The opposition to the entry of the English was insignificant. During the progress through the town Roberts ordered the instant replacement of goods being looted by the Kaffirs.

A Durban dispatch yesterday says in view of the developments in the Free State it is the intention now to withdraw Warren and a large part of the troops in Natal, which is abandoned. Instead the forces will be sent back from the coast, and an attempt will be made to storm the Drakenberg passes into the Free State. All the British heavy artillery is being moved from Ladysmith in the direction of Van Rensselaer's pass, but it is not believed that the Free States, however strong the position they hold, have sufficient fighting energy left to resist an invasion from Natal.

STILL AT IT IN KENTUCKY.

A Plan to Fight If Goebellites Persist In Their Intentions.
Louisville, March 15—Arrangements were completed today for the organization of some of the best citizens of Kentucky to investigate the charges against Powers, Culton, Davis and Hazzelsh, and raise money to defend them. Promoters of this scheme have employed ex-Governor Bradley as leading counsel. They will protect the accused by force if necessary. Organizations will be made all over the state to act in conjunction with the central one and the overt acts of Goebel-lites will be met by force of the conspiracy to arrest republicans generally is carried forth. Taylor will surrender neither militia nor office.

EXECUTION IN EAST CAROLINA

A Hanging at Nashville Draws a Ten Thousand Crowd.
Norfolk, March 15—Robert Fortune and John Taylor, two negroes, were hanged at Nashville, N. C., for murder. So great was the desire to see the hanging that the Nash county board of commissioners made the hanging public. It is estimated that ten thousand people witnessed the execution.

Defeat of Tariff Bill Expected.

Washington, March 15—There are ten republican senators in favor of free trade with Porto Rico. The republic-can majority in the senate is only seven.
Three democrats will vote for the tariff bill. This leaves a tie, and the defeat of the bill is consequently expected.

May Upset Open Door.

Shanghai, March 15—The American Association today telegraphed the U. S. government that the attitude of the empress dowager towards reformers will upset the open door policy.
Also that to stay rebellion and anarchy they expected the action of the powers. An appeal will be made to the British minister on the same subject.

Five Blocks Burned.

Hopkinton, Mass., March 15—Five blocks of the business portion of the town was totally destroyed by fire, which started at half past two this morning.

Rough Weather.

Washington, March 15—The weather bureau has issued a special saying that the heavy snow increasing northwards indicates that it will continue tonight over Ohio and the lower lake regions, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, District of Columbia and Virginia.

Chinese Theaters.

The Chinese are a remarkably fond of the drama, and consequently every village has its stage. In this way the people are educated in the past history of their nation. The stage arrangements are about on a par with those which existed in England at the time of Shakespeare. There is no scenery, and consequently the success of the piece depends entirely on the acting, which is remarkably good.

Addresses do not exist in China, for since, some centuries ago, an emperor married an actress they have not been allowed. Women's parts are taken by boys, who excel in their imitations of women's voices, gait and general deportment.

Perhaps it is their theatrical representations which render Chinamen so content with rural life. At any rate, instead of crowding into towns from the country they are happy to work on the land, which supplies them with all that is needful for food and clothing.
There are no native fire engines, industries being still in the cottage stage, and agriculture employs more people than any sort of trade—Collier's Weekly.

Thayer and Bryan.
When William Jennings Bryan first went to Nebraska, he was hired to take the stump against Thayer, who was running for governor, and said some hard things against the candidate.
"Thayer was elected," Bryan is quoted as saying in the Chicago Times-Herald. "After he took the governor's chair he was called to be toastmaster at a banquet at which I was set down for a speech. I did not care to go to that banquet. I did not wish to meet the governor. I remember all that had said of him, and I felt cheap. But I went and sat there through the early proceedings quite uncomfortable."

"Finally it came time for the governor to call upon me. He rose from his seat, with programme before him, and slowly said, 'Mr. Bryan—Bryan.' Then he slowly turned his eyes upon me and addressed me. 'Do you speak or sing?' That is all I ever heard from Governor Thayer as to what he thought of my campaign speeches against him."

Thinks They Need Editing.
The blue pencil apparently did not exist in olden times. We have read on pages of Marcus Aurelius at a stretch without understanding a word of it. Epictetus is equally hard to read. Marcus Aurelius and Epictetus are philosophers without doubt, but they have a style that gives you a headache. But need editing. The man with the blue pencil should get after Marcus Aurelius and Epictetus.
Emerson's books also clamor for the blue pencil. Carlyle is another clumsy writer. Greatly in need of the blue pencil of a good editor. A wise saying is not a matter of faith. Unless you can see it and understand it it is not a wise saying.—Atchison Globe.

A Tell-tale.
A "beto de wab" matron was teaching one of the little darlings on her knee how to spell. "The primer she used was a pictorial one, and over each word was its accompanying picture, and Polly glibly spelled 'o-x, ox,' and 'b-o-x, box,' etc."

"For the teacher thought that she was making too rapid progress, so she put her hand over the picture and said, 'Polly, what does o-x spell?'
'Ox,' answered Polly with alacrity.
'How do you know that it spells ox,' said the teacher. 'It spells ox,' said Polly.—San Francisco Argonaut.

THE LATE PRESIDENT STEYN.

Roberts' Grim Expression Indicates the Fate of the Free State.
London, March 15, 4:50 a.m.—The first half of the campaign is over.
Lord Roberts arrived at Modder River on February 9. He entered Bloemfontein on March 13. Thus in a little over a month he has effected the relief of Kimberley and Ladysmith, the capture of General Cronje's forces and the boasting of the British flag in the capital of the Free State. All this has been accomplished with comparatively trifling losses. It is small wonder that he is the hero of the hour in England. All the newspapers eulogize him and congratulate the country. They talk of the Free State as having passed out of existence and as being now one of the shadows of history. It is not doubted there may yet be heavy fighting, but the genius of Lord Roberts is looked to for victory over all difficulties. His grim reference to the "late" President Steyn is understood to show that there shall be no ambiguity as to the position assumed toward the republics.

The fact that Mr. Frazer, late chairman of the Free State Road and leader of the opposition to Mr. Steyn, came with the deputation to surrender the keys is regarded as extremely significant of considerable differences of opinion among the First States regarding the war. It is said that President Kruger hates Mr. Frazer on account of his sympathy with the Out-landers. The demonstrations of the Bloemfontein inhabitants are also regarded as a good augury for the future of British supremacy.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HARDON, Va., Dec. 8.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years and have taken many medicines, but none have done more for me than this one.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than disarrange the system temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the female organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

SCROFULA AND ITS AWFUL HORRORS

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

A MOST WONDERFUL CURE.

A Grand old lady gives her experience.

Mrs. Thankful Orlin Hurd lives in the beautiful village of Brighton, Michigan Co., Mich. This venerable and highly respected lady was born in the year 1812, the year of the great war, in Hebron, Washington Co., New York. She came to Michigan in 1840, the year of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." All her faculties are excellently preserved, and possessing a very retentive memory, her mind is full of interesting reminiscences of her early life in the early days of the State of Michigan and the interesting and remarkable people she has met, and the various events which have transpired. But nothing in her varied and manifold recollections are more remarkable and worthy of attention than her experiences in the use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Hurd inherited a tendency and predisposition to scrofula, that terribly destructive disease which has cursed and is cursing the lives of thousands and marking thousands more as victims of the death angel. Transmitted from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family in one form or another. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in unsightly swellings in the neck or face, or in eruptions of various forms. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may be known as catarrh in the head, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

Speaking of her case, Mrs. Hurd says: "I was troubled for many years with a bad skin disease. My arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. My neck began to swell and became very unsightly in appearance. My body was covered with scrofulous eruptions. My eyes were also greatly inflamed and weakened, and they pained me very much. My blood was in a very bad condition and my head ached severely at frequent intervals, and I had no appetite. I had sores also in my ears. It was in a miserable condition, I had tried every remedy that had been recommended, and doctor after doctor had failed. One of the best physicians in the state told me I must die of scrofulous consumption, as internal abscesses were beginning to form. I at length learned of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA, the famous Sarsaparilla. I tried a bottle, more as an experiment than anything else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily became stronger and well. All the sores healed up, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, and I have never been troubled with scrofula since. Of course an old lady of 83 years is not a young woman, but I have had remarkably good health for many years, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the best blood purifier and the best medicine in the world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting old lady did not look a day more than sixty, and she repeated several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."

Oh, the Pain of Rheumatism!

Rheumatism often causes the most intense suffering. Many have for years vainly sought relief from this disabling disease, and are to-day worse off than ever. Rheumatism is a blood disease, and Swift's Specific is the only cure, because it is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated disease.

A few years ago I was taken with inflammatory Rheumatism, which became so intense that I was for weeks unable to walk. I tried several prominent physicians and took their treatment faithfully, but was unable to get the slightest relief. In fact, my condition seemed to grow worse, the disease spread over my entire body, and from November to March I suffered agony. I tried many patent medicines, but none relieved me. Upon the advice of a friend I decided to try Swift's Specific. Before allowing me to take it, however, my physician, who was a chemist, analyzed the remedy, and pronounced it free of poison or mercury. It is so much better than anything I had ever taken, that I continued the remedy, and in two weeks I was able to walk, and a few days later I was able to do my usual work. I have never since had a return of the disease, and I am now able to do my usual work. I am now able to do my usual work. I am now able to do my usual work.

Will Powell Avenue, Philadelphia.

Don't suffer longer with Rheumatism. Throw aside your oils and liniments, as they can't reach your trouble. Don't experiment with doctors—their potash and mercury will add to your disability and completely destroy your digestion.

S.S.S. For Blood

will cure perfectly and permanently. It is guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral. It is mailed free by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

When a man's furnace won't work he usually manages to get hot about it.

Mrs. Harriet Evans, Hinsdale, Ill., writes: "I never fail to relieve my children of croup at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it." Quickly cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung diseases." Howard Gardner.

The dogs of war are still embarking for South Africa.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grover's Tasteless Chili Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply for the cure of malaria in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

Luck seldom comes to the man who depends upon it.

To secure the original witch hazel salve, ask for Dr. Witt's Witch Faze Salve, well known as a certain cure for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits. They are dangerous. Howard Gardner.

A polite way to call a man a liar is to say he is suffering from amputation of veracity.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.

The busiest and mightiest lit-tle thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fog into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25 cents per box. Sold by C. E. Holton.

Borrowed—"Lend me a dollar, old chap? I'm a little short." Wigwag—"There it is. Now get along."

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills. For consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

No, Maude, dear, a man doesn't take iron into his system in order that his words may carry weight.

J. I. Bevery Logansport, Pa., writes I am willing to take my oath I was cured of pneumonia entirely by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. I was cured of my children of whooping cough." Quickly relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Children all like it. Mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

Hoax—"Byones says he's been away shooting game." Joaz—"What sort of game?" Hoax—"Craps, I guess."

FREE OF CHARGE.

Any adult suffering from a cold settled on the breast, bronchitis, throat or lung troubles of any nature, who will call at Grisoom & Fordham's, will be presented with a sample bottle of Boschee's German Syrup, free of charge. Only one bottle given to one person, and none to children without order from parents. No throat or lung remedy ever had such a sale as Boschee's German Syrup in all parts of the civilized world. Twenty years ago millions of bottles were given away, and your druggist will tell you to success was marvelous. It is really the only throat and lung trouble generally endorsed by physicians. Only 75-cent bottle will cure or prove its value. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

A man never acquires true fame until he has a cigar named after him. Thus his name is in everybody's mouth.

The Best Medicine For Rheumatism.

"I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Balm," writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Hernando, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies without number, but Pain Balm is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Shattered Diamonds.

"Under certain conditions, which are very rare and remarkable," said an old jeweler, "a diamond may be shattered to atoms by a smart, sudden blow. The stone seems to disintegrate and fly apart, as neatly as I can express it, and when the Kimberley gems first came into the market the Brazilian brokers claimed that they were especially subject to that kind of accident. For the time being, the story had its effect on trade, but it was proved to be untrue, and the incident is now forgotten. In the course of an experience of nearly 40 years I have known of only two cases of diamonds being broken.

"One occurred many years ago, when I was working in a shop in the old Reid House in Chattanooga. A lady customer dropped a cluster brooch from the counter to the tiled floor, a distance of about 3 1/2 feet. It struck squarely on the center stone, which was broken into a number of small, irregular fragments. The diamond had weighed about two carats.

"The other instance took place here in New Orleans about six years ago. A St. Louis traveling man named Crawford had a solitaire weighing 1 1/2 carats set in a ring. He was standing in the store and was conversing about something made a sudden gesture and struck the stone against a metal fixture. It was split into small, jagged splinters, a number of which we found on top of the showcase. The drummer himself was the most astonished man I ever saw. He had supposed diamonds were indestructible simply because they were hard."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Alexander MacArthur, author of a successful study of life in the Latin quarter of Paris, which brought the writer both popularity and profit, is also the pupil and biographer of Rubinstein. The author lived for two years in St. Petersburg, corresponding for the London press and taking part in some thrilling adventures, but the most singular of the writer's experiences happened in Chicago after the novel had been brought out by a publisher of that city. The book had been so successful that the publisher decided to give the author a dinner, to which a dozen of the leading men of letters in the lake city were invited. The guests had assembled when the author was announced.

Through the blue haze of smoke there appeared a handsome young woman attired in evening dress.

"We are expecting Mr. MacArthur," said the host, "Mr. Alexander MacArthur, the novelist."

"So I understand," returned the unexpected guest. "I am Alexander MacArthur."

"You?" gasped the publisher.

"Yes. Didn't you know? I am Lillian MacArthur, at your service. I have been writing over the name of Alexander ever since I left my home in Dublin."

It was only the work of a minute to rearrange matters, and the dinner was a great success.—Saturday Evening Post.

The Captain's Distinction.

On one of "Old Hoss" Hoey's trips across the Atlantic the steamer, moving slowly along in a dense fog at about 8 o'clock in the morning, struck on the rocks off Fastnet, the light not being visible. Fortunately, nothing more than a scare for the passengers resulted. Everybody was soon on deck except Hoey, who had been having a hilarious time the night before and had slept all through the trouble. One of his friends, a steward, called out to him at last he appeared, still a trifle befogged. When the facts were explained to him, he joined fervently in an impromptu praise service which the passengers were holding.

Finally there came a lull in the proceedings, and "Old Hoss" took advantage of it to propose three cheers and a tiger for the captain. This proposition caused much astonishment, and some one ventured to ask on what grounds he based the proposed honor to the captain.

Drawing himself up to his full height, "Old Hoss" replied impressively, "On the ground that he is the only man sailing the Atlantic ocean who could have hit that infernal rock without a light!"—San Francisco Argonaut.

Same Thing.

At a woman's ecstacy party the other day one of the fair players stopped the game with this query: "What do they call a little black cat in England?"

A number of the members had been in England, but they all had to give it up.

The riddle maker smiled sweetly as she trumped her partner's ace in true traditional style.

"Can't guess? Why, 'kitty, kitty'—just the same as anywhere else."—New York Mail and Express.

Food Plants.

A wonderful reserve fund for the human appetite is to be found in the vegetable diet of the Kiamath Indians. A single leaf of a fern, forming a menu unknown to the civilized, is offered in the pulp of the great yellow water lily, which is converted into a farinaceous food; in the weed known as goosefoot, which bears a black seed that is ground up for loaves and cakes, and in the arrowhead, which in the fall develops a starchy white tuber at the end of the roots.

Not a Bribe.

"You say," pursued the chairman of the legislative investigating committee, "that he resorted to no bribery whatever during the campaign, so far as you know?"

"Yes, sir," replied the witness; "that is what I said, and I mean it."

"Did he not circulate several boxes of cigars?"

"Yes, sir, but them cigars wasn't bribes. Here's one of 'em. You can try it."—Chicago Tribune.

VOLCANIC ERUPTIONS.

The horse of Mr. N. J. McDuffie, which was run into and received such a heavy blow from the wheel of Mr. Clegg's buggy when his horse ran away a few days ago, has not been able to do any work since.

A. B. Cannady who has been practicing law in Greensboro for the past five months, left today for Florence, S. C., where he came from here. He will resume his practice at that place. Mr. Cannady is a young man of fine character and ability and carries with him the good wishes of many friends.

THE ORGAN RECITAL.

At the First Presbyterian Church Tonight by Prof. Craighill.

Prof. J. H. Craighill, of Charlotte, arrived at noon today and will give the first organ recital ever held in this city at the First Presbyterian church tonight. The instrument is a very fine one and Prof. Craighill is said to be a master musician, so lovers of music will be entertained.

This entertainment was to have been given some weeks ago, but was postponed on account of bad weather. The conditions as to weather are not much more favorable now, but the church will be warm and comfortable and the musical entertainment will cause you to forget that an equinoctial storm ever raged or that March winds ever blew. Don't forget the collection that will be taken for the organ fund. There is no charge for admission, and it is left optional with you to give or not to give, but all offerings will be appreciated.

MARRIAGE LAST NIGHT.

Couple Go from Thomasville to Lexington, and Return on Next Train.

Quite a surprise marriage occurred last night in Lexington. Mr. Charles B. Wilkerson, a contractor of Greensboro, now doing work in Thomasville, and Miss Blanche Moore, daughter of Capt. Thomas Moore, were the happy principals. Accompanied by Mr. J. S. Moore and Miss Beale Eller, of Greensboro, and a couple of friends from Thomasville, the couple boarded the evening train going south, went to Lexington, were married and returned on the next train.

The party were in Lexington but a short time, and the ceremony was performed about nine o'clock by Rev. Mr. Rich, of Lexington. While the marriage was quite a surprise, it was agreeable to the families of the parties, and the happy couple are now receiving the congratulations of their hosts of friends. They will remain in Thomasville until Mr. Wilkerson's contract there is completed.

Mrs. Gorrell, of the military firm of Mrs. Gorrell and Dorsett, went north today to spend two weeks in company with Miss Ruby Crawford, in buying new goods and studying the latest styles and fashions. Miss Crawford will return with Mrs. Gorrell.

NO QUARANTINE.

The Board of Aldermen Met Today But Took No Action.

Dr. Edmund Harrison returned last night from Raleigh, where he saw about fifty cases of smallpox yesterday. He says the Raleigh authorities have gone to work vigorously to stop the spread of the disease and to stamp it out. Dr. Williams has been employed by the city, and Dr. Newton, of Richmond, by the Edin Cotton Mill Company to handle the disease among the mill operatives. Dr. Harrison says that according to the best information he could get there are about a hundred and ten cases in Raleigh about fifty-five in Edinville (the mill village). This makes our estimate of yesterday just about correct.

Pursuant to adjournment the board of aldermen of Greensboro met today to consider the question of quarantining against Raleigh. After discussing the matter for awhile and hearing the report of Dr. Harrison, the board adjourned without taking any action. It was apparent that a majority of the board was opposed to taking steps that could only end in a monumental farce, and there was no motion made to quarantine. The city, says Dr. Harrison, is amply protected by vaccination, and it would be impossible for the disease to spread here now. A case or two may occur among people coming here from Raleigh, but he thinks this is liable to occur even if the most rigid quarantine it is possible for us to inaugurate, should be enforced.

It is hoped the Raleigh people will watch their suspects and keep them at home. Meanwhile if any of our people are yet unvaccinated they had better not remain so.

An Informal Party.

The home of Gen. Jas. D. Glenn, on Arlington street was the scene last night of a merry informal party, in honor of Miss Gaine, of Danville, a visiting young lady. Progressive supper and delicious refreshments were the basis of many of the pleasures of the evening. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kase; Mr. and Mrs. Devin, of Oxford; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fry; Mr. and Mrs. O. Williams; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brown; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gayle; Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Pope; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bynum; Mrs. Willis J. Smith, of Philadelphia; Mrs. C. Mebane; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Mebane, of Graham; Misses George, Bernard, Kase, Mebane, O'Brien, and Horry; Messrs. W. G. Mebane, Berger, Powe, King, Kimball, Michaux, Douglas and Horry.

PRESIDENT WINSTON TALKS.

AND SAYS THE OLD NORTH STATE IS COMING ALONG.

He Tells the Telegram About What Is Being Done Along Technical Lines—Athletic Sports.

President Geo. T. Winston, of the Agricultural and Mechanical College in Raleigh, was in Greensboro this morning, returning from Charlotte where he appeared before United States Industrial Commission yesterday. A special to the Morning Post says that among the nine witnesses examined "Dr. Winston gave the most valuable testimony. He first outlined the work of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, briefly summarizing the sources of revenue. He thought the national government should assist in educational work and establish a complete system of normal training. Dr. Winston predicted that the time would come when negro labor would not be desired in the south, for the reason that when wages increase the whites will take on themselves all manual labor. One indication of this is found in the eagerness of young white men to obtain technical education and preparation for mechanical pursuits."

Dr. Winston was interviewed this morning by a Telegram man and among other interesting things said: "Three hundred students are enrolled in the Agricultural and Mechanical College at Raleigh, and notwithstanding the fact that we could not possibly accommodate any more, at least one hundred applicants have turned away. We are crowded. There are three boys in rooms where there should be only two, and four where there should be three. The college would have a thousand boys if we only had accommodations for them. The old North State is coming to the front. We are now at work," continued Dr. Winston, "on the textile department of the institution, getting ready to commence work for mechanical building, which we hope to have complete by next September. The building and equipment will cost approximately $40,000. We estimate that the building alone will cost about $20,000, and we will install therein about $20,000 worth of machinery."

"This machinery will cover the whole range of textile manufacturing and one of two of the best of each different kind of machinery will be put in. The object is to fit our home boys for the best salaried positions in our mills instead of having to send away for men to fill them. The boys will not only be taught how to manage and operate the machines, but to actually make and replace broken parts. In addition to the practical training, theoretical calculations and designing will be taught, so that students may become superintendents as well as expert operatives. A four year course will be given those who come without any knowledge of the business of textile manufacturing; a two year course for those who have a partial understanding of it and a one year course for those who have thorough knowledge of the practical and want to learn the theoretical."

Dr. Winston spoke of the movement on foot with reference to college athletics and of the meeting to be held at the McAdoo, in this city, next Saturday, looking to a better regulation of this part of the college life. "We want to make these sports," said the Doctor, "a stimulus to the colleges, instead of the colleges being a stimulus to athletics. This is to be done by having 'professionalism' from the athletic teams and placing them entirely in the hands of bona fide students of the institutions, instead of picked men who are offered inducements to attend school on account of their ability on the gridiron or the diamond. Such abuses must be corrected in order to carry out Dr. Winston's idea of making 'athletics a stimulus to the college.'"

Next to the Consumer is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices. First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity. They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price is now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time." And ours is the place to get the stuff.
